

THE MAJ
OCEANIC

The future of travel, on traditions of the past.

The MAJ Oceano is a traditional hand-crafted two-masted Phinisi yacht with 5+1 resort-standard suites crafted with modern design and technology. It accommodates 12 guests on each journey.

Learn, feel, understand, taste, and touch new things while exploring your inner explorer. Get up close with the world's largest bird species. Huddle together along the railings to spot nature's great displays. Enjoy seafood the Jack Sparrow way. Or practice yoga to the sound of waves.

If to travel is to live, then this might be the life you never knew existed.

Suites & Staterooms

Zheng He
Admiral Suite
120 sqm

Upping the suite game in the luxury China market, there are 8+1 cabins specially designed by a group of land-based designers to give a modern look that's a floating reflection of a world-class resort.

At 110 square is the largest master suite on a Phyllis cruise in the market. Being the only suite on the bridge deck, it offers full privacy, your own balcony, and a 270° view of the ocean.

The image shows a luxurious cabin interior with dark wood paneling on the walls and ceiling. A large, tufted ottoman sits in the foreground. In the background, a permanent queen bed is neatly made with white linens and a patterned throw. To the right, a writing desk with a blue chair and a lamp is visible. A window on the left side offers a view of the ocean.

Columbus

Commendare Suite

35sqm

As far as space is concerned, this comes in a close second. Private ensuite bathroom, permanent queen bed, and closet. Built-in dresser with writing desk. Located on the main deck and is near the main lounge and dining room.

Vasco Da Gama &
James Cook
Deluxe Staterooms
23 sqm

F. Magellan & Marcopolo
Deluxe Staterooms
25 sqm

A space for socializing, not just sleeping. Multi jet shower and a well appointed opening area with chase, built-in dresser, and writing desk.

Dining & Lounge

Gajah Mada

Lounge & Dining Area

The most emblematic of the main deck area, the Gajah Mada lounge and dining room, features a large decorative copper hot-relief depicting iconic maritime scenes from a bygone era.

Experiences

Experience the ultimate sailing adventure with onboard and off-board activities specially arranged by the Cruise Director. Dive and snorkel in some of the deepest and most diverse marine habitats in the world, paddleboard, jet-ski, yoga, or simply watch the time go by on remote, pristine beaches.

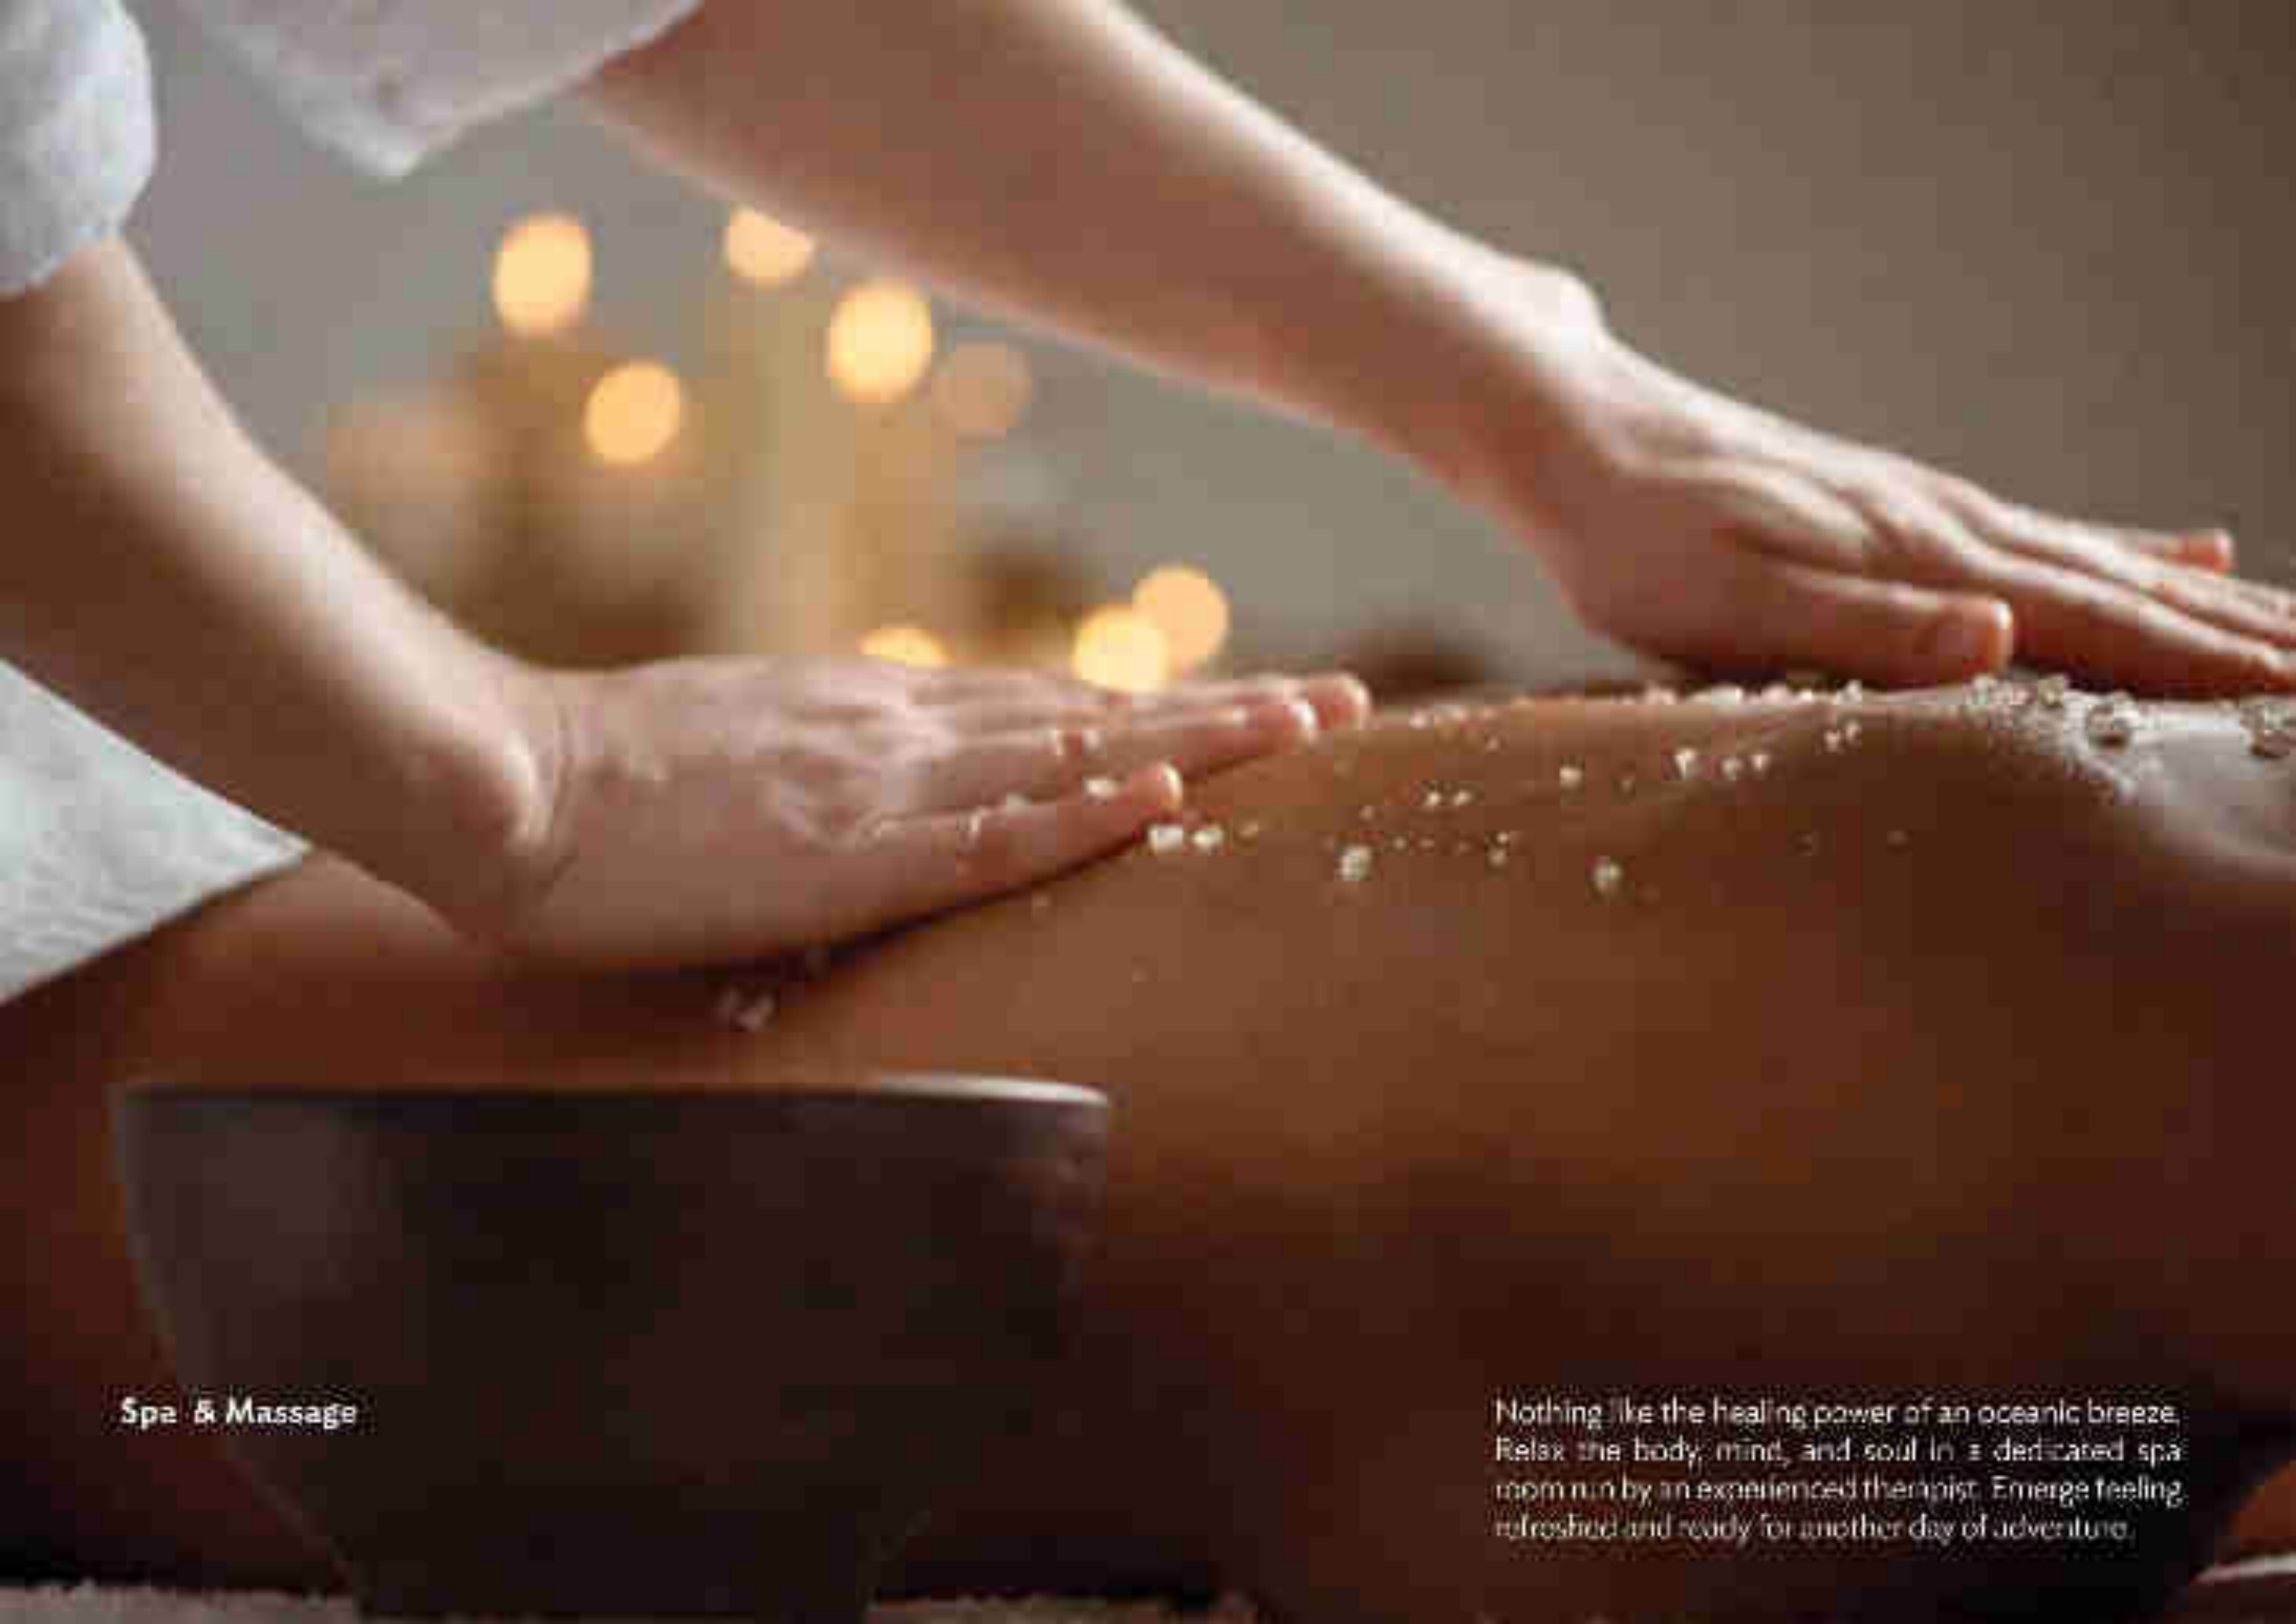

Yoga

Equatorial Golf

This game uses special biodegradable golf balls containing fish food, allowing guests to improve marine sustainability and biodiversity while practicing their favorite sport.

Spa & Massage

Nothing like the healing power of an oceanic breeze. Relax the body, mind, and soul in a dedicated spa room run by an experienced therapist. Emerge feeling refreshed and ready for another day of adventure.

Dining Experience

Menus aboard The (Y/A) Oceanic pay homage to the regions where we sail while ensuring tremendous variety. You and our chef can also craft a bespoke menu inspired by a palate or a special moment. It is then prepared and served in a location of your choosing.

Destination

The MAJ Oceanic is based in Labuan Bajo, Komodo National Park (June - October), Raja Ampat (November - May) and sail through Spice Islands, Banda in between. Trips are tailored to guests' preferred itineraries.

Komodo Island

Here be dragons.

From island hopping to trekking to, to, from the world-famous Komodo Island (crowned as Indonesia's Jurassic Park) to splendid pink sand beaches. This UNESCO World Heritage Site offers endless splendors to relish on.

Raja Ampat

An out-of-this-world destination.

The world's richest underwater biodiversity with over 600 small islands surrounding the four main islands of Mook, Salawai, Baturai and Waigeo.

Spice Islands

The 'great nutmeg island'

The volcanic Banda Islands are as rich in history and natural beauty as they are remote. Those who dare to visit are rewarded with bygone colonial architecture, buzzing spice markets, and postcard pretty scenery.
